

Climbing higher

Redspokes Adventure Tours is a specialist adventure travel company taking small groups of cyclists to spectacular and remote areas of the world.

It offers a unique blend of physical challenges, cultural experiences and cycling camaraderie – all at highly competitive prices. All redspokes guides are experienced cyclists and tour leaders.

The popularity of the companies' most established tours to Laos, Vietnam, Nepal, Cambodia, Tibet, Colombia and Argentina / Chile has led to an increased number of destinations. Additional tours in recent years include Sri Lanka, Albania, China; new for 2018 will be Uzbekistan.

Increasingly, redspokes is catering for private groups, providing tailored adventure trips for groups from 2 to 24 people.

Redspokes is the leading specialist company for high-altitude cycling. Its tours to Tibet and the Indian Himalayas are in high demand. In Tibet, you will cross five major passes over 5,000 metres and in India you will climb the highest road pass in the world. Each trip presents its own challenges and redspokes rate them as expeditions rather than holidays.

STAND
F31

44 (0) 207 502 7252

www.redspokes.co.uk

Redspokes is committed to ethical travel and has ongoing involvement in charity projects through its partner charity LVCF. In Laos, redspokes supports two local schools and has established a water supply to a remote village. Its association continues with the mobility disability charity COPE. In Peru and Vietnam, Redspokes supports rural schools, funding resources, while in Pakistan it funds a primary school teacher and a women's enterprise initiative. Redspokes is also linked to the charity Braille without Borders in Tibet. ●